

A Tree House in Pine

Pine, Arizona (15 minutes north of Payson)

In less than two hours from downtown Phoenix you could be parked and sitting in a lounge chair next to a fire pit surrounded by tall pines, enjoying a north facing cabin at 5,500 ft with a 120 degree panoramic view of the Mogollon Rim. The rim defines the southwestern edge of the Colorado Plateau.

Come alone: and get the best nights' sleep you have ever had & finish that book!

Come with a special partner: and light up the fireplace and watch a sky full of stars!

Come with the family: and meet your kids - the same ones you only "watch" at home!

This place defines "family time"!

The tree house is a $ 350,000 all natural log cabin sitting on 1/3 acre. The three levels include: two bedrooms (the master is upstairs with its own deck), two bathrooms, a loft and a sleeper sofa. (sleeps 6 comfortably). It also includes a wrap around main deck and has a semi finished basement that includes a pool table, dart board and a full size washer & dryer.

All you need to bring is a change of clothes and your toothbrush. Everything else is provided including cable, a 37" flat panel TV / DVD , propane barbeque and many more amenities.

It is surrounded by tall pines, and every night includes a billion stars and every morning includes cool weather .
